

Wolfson Lee Library

Transform the way you learn

The Library offers exceptional support to students at all stages of their studies and research.

Using the library

Opening hours

We are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Access

You will need to swipe your University Card to enter the rooms within the library.

Support for disabled users

We are keen to ensure that the physical library, our online resources and the support we offer meet your individual requirements. Please feel free to come and talk to us at any time or visit www.wolfson.cam.ac.uk/current-students/library/using-library/support-disabled-users

Facilities

We have study spaces with a variety of desks and chairs, a computer room and wi-fi throughout. Toilets and lockers are in the basement. You may bring your own drinks and cold food into the library.

Finding books and articles

Search iDiscover <https://idiscover.lib.cam.ac.uk/> to find resources on a reading list or by keyword. If we don't have a book that you need, fill in a form to let us know www.wolfson.cam.ac.uk/current-students/library/using-library

Borrowing

You may borrow 20 books at a time. You'll need your University Card to use the self-issue machine in the Reading Room; return them in the drop box. Books renew automatically but if you need something on loan, you can request them at any time.

Check your account online

Log in to your account on iDiscover <https://idiscover.lib.cam.ac.uk/> to see what you have borrowed and when it is due. You will need your CRSid username and password.

Academic Skills

Get to the answer quickly and expertly by making use of all that we have to offer. We deliver lasting skills that will be of benefit throughout your time in Cambridge and beyond.

We can help you at the start of your journey to:

- search catalogues, databases and the academic web for items on a reading list or to discover relevant resources in your research field
- use software to store your references and add them seamlessly into your written work
- comply with copyright and avoid plagiarism
- develop strategies to manage your time
- take effective notes
- become a critical reader and writer
- make the most of the feedback you receive

As your studies progress, we can provide more advanced support so that you can:

- keep up to date with new research
- conduct data and information management planning
- develop an academic online presence
- consider options about how and where to publish your research
- assess the impact of scholarly publications and measure the impact of your work

Tips, tools, guides and tutorials are available:

- on the Wolfson College LibGuide <http://libguides.cam.ac.uk/wolfsoncollege>
- or on our YouTube channel - Academic-Skills Wolfson

Find information for your particular stage of study with tailored pages for new students, writing a dissertation, and researchers:

Both The Librarian and Academic Skills Librarian are available on a one-to-one basis to discuss tools and techniques to improve how you discover, manage, evaluate, create and present information. Get in touch to arrange an online appointment.

WolfWorks is a programme of online workshops targeted at students at different stages of their academic journey. These are offered during term time, book a place via the college website. These, and our online resources, are generic in nature, so please get in touch to learn more about subject-specific approaches.

Other libraries

You can also use the University Library, and most faculty and departmental libraries (subject to opening hours). Look at the Libraries Directory for more information
