Wolfson Library
Transform the way you learn

The Library offers exceptional support to students at all stages of their studies and research.

Using the library

Opening hours
We are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You will need to swipe your University Card to enter the rooms within the library.

Accessibility
We are keen to ensure that the physical library, our online resources and the support we offer meet your individual requirements. Please feel free to come and talk to us at any time or visit www.wolfson.cam.ac.uk/current-students/library/using-library/support-disabled-users for information.

Facilities
We have study spaces with a variety of desks and chairs, a computer room and wi-fi throughout. Toilets, lockers, a fridge and a water-fountain are in the basement. A kettle with free tea and coffee are in the foyer. You may also bring your own drinks and cold food into the library.

Finding books and articles
Search iDiscover https://idiscover.lib.cam.ac.uk/ to find resources on a reading list or by keyword. If we don’t have a book that you need, fill in a form and we’ll see if we can buy it www.wolfson.cam.ac.uk/current-students/library/using-library/suggest-book

Borrowing
You may borrow 20 books at a time from Wolfson Library. You’ll need your Cambridge Card to use the self-issue machine in the Reading Room; return them in the drop box. Books renew automatically. If you need something on loan to someone else, you can request that it is returned within a few days.

Check your account online
Log in to your account on iDiscover https://idiscover.lib.cam.ac.uk/ to see what you have borrowed and when it is due. You will need your CRSid username and password.

Your library team

The Library is staffed during the day, Monday to Friday. Please drop in to see us if you have any questions. Alternatively, get in touch by email. We are very happy to see you one-to-one or in small groups:

Academic Skills

Get to the answer quickly and expertly by making use of all that we have to offer. We deliver lasting skills that will be of benefit throughout your time in Cambridge and beyond.

We can help you at the start of your journey to:
- search catalogues, databases and the academic web for items on a reading list or to discover relevant resources in your research field
- use software to store your references and add them seamlessly into your written work
- comply with copyright and avoid plagiarism
- develop strategies to manage your time
- take effective notes
- become a critical reader and writer
- make the most of the feedback you receive

As your studies progress, we can provide more advanced support so that you can:
- keep up to date with new research
- conduct data and information management planning
- develop an academic online presence
- consider options about how and where to publish your research
- assess the impact of scholarly publications and measure the impact of your work

Tips, tools, guides and tutorials are available:
- on the Wolfson College LibGuide http://libguides.cam.ac.uk/wolfsoncollege
- or on our YouTube channel - Academic-Skills Wolfson

We offer support specifically for academic writing including one-to-one appointments with the Royal Literary Fund Fellow and a proof-reading service:

WolfWorks is a programme of online workshops targeted at students at different stages of their academic journey. These evening sessions are offered during term time; book a place via the college events page. These, and our online resources, are generic in nature, so please get in touch to learn more about subject-specific approaches.

Both Laura and Alberto are available on a one-to-one basis to discuss tools and techniques to improve how you discover, manage, evaluate, create and present information.
- Schedule an appointment online https://www.wolfson.cam.ac.uk/current-students/library/academic-skills-support
- or email to arrange a convenient time
